

Martina Borger & Maria Elisabeth Straub
Little Sister

Published by Diogenes as Kleine Schwester
Original title: Kleine Schwester

Borger & Straub
Kleine Schwester

Diogenes

Book factsheet

General Fiction
224 pages
11.6 x 18.4 cm
September 2002

World rights are handled by Diogenes

Awards

Martina Borger

2002 ›Frauen-Krimi-Preis‹ der Stadt
Wiesbaden für Kleine Schwester

Maria Elisabeth Straub

2002 ›Frauen-Krimi-Preis‹ der Stadt
Wiesbaden für Kleine Schwester

Praise

Little Sister

»With their elegant prose and profound understanding of the human soul, Borger & Straub are reminiscent of Patricia Highsmith.«
– Spiegel Special, Hamburg

»Borger & Straub know how to get their readers addicted.« – Tages-Anzeiger, Zurich

»Splendidly complicated, full of emotion and secrets.« – Brigitte, Hamburg

The twelve-year-old Lilly sits silently in front of the woman police officer. All attempts to make her speak fail. Lilly cannot explain the relentless chronology of unfortunate events that have pitched her family into disaster, she can only remember her childhood, which was overshadowed by disruptive events but which also contained some wonderful moments of happiness: her parents, ›the best in the world‹, and her foster sister Lotta who came from a home to make ›a real family‹ of them all – and who triggered the catastrophe which was not to end until Lilly took the hardest decision of her life ...
A book that you can't put down until you have read the last sentence.

Photo: Maurice Haas / © Diogenes Verlag

Martina Borger, born in Bavaria in 1956, worked as a journalist, script editor and film critic, before turning to screenwriting. She has worked as a storyliner and head writer on several tv series. In collaboration with Maria Elisabeth Straub she published her first novel, Cats' Tongues, in 2001, followed by Little Sister (2002), In the Ring (2004) and Summer with Emma (2009). She is the sole author of her 2007 novel Dear Luca. Martina Borger lives in Munich.

Photo: © Regine Mielmann / Diogenes Verlag

Maria Elisabeth Straub was born in 1943 in Schleswig-Holstein. She studied art history and German philology and has worked as a freelance author since 1970. Together with her co-author Martina Borger, she has published three novels so far. Maria Elisabeth Straub lives in Germany's far north.

---

We'll Catch up on It
Later
304 pages
2020

 Bestseller

Dear Luca
208 pages
2007

The Gift
336 pages
2006

Summer with Emma 416 pages
2009

In the Ring
384 pages
2004

 Movie Adaptation

Cats' Tongues
368 pages
2001

 Movie Adaptation