Mrożek's creativity covers everything from the dark parable about the 'condition humaine' to playful, seemingly naïve stories and slapstick-like fables. For all the differences with regard to themes, the texts have one thing in common: their subtle humour and their joyful treatment of the ludicrous which characterises Mrożek's entire oeuvre.

Praise

Slawomir Mrozek

»Mrozek's literature is addictive.« – El País, Barcelona

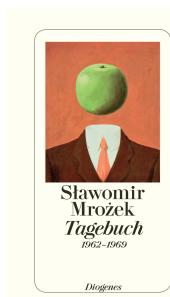

Praise (cont'd)

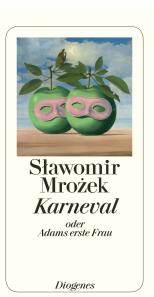

»The author, known primarily as a playwright, reveals himself as a writer of incisive prose who captures the absurdity of reality and its interaction with unreality in polished, witty formulations.« – Neue Zürcher Zeitung

»Brilliant [...] the writer is an Aesop for our times.« – Publishers' Weekly, New York

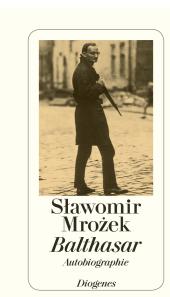

Sławomir Mrożek was born in Borzecin, Poland, in 1930. He was first known as a caricaturist and author of satirical short stories. His plays (Tango, The Emigrants, Striptease, and many others) made him world famous. In 1968 he went into exile. After living many years in Paris and later in Mexico, he returned to Poland in 1996 and spent the final years of his life in southern France. He died on August 15, 2013 in Nice.
