Andrzej Szczypiorski Notizen zum Stand der Dinge

Diogenes

A book which shows that the great works of world literature such as ›The Beautiful Mrs Seidenman‹ are not created in the ivory tower; important insights of a committed writer in times of upheaval in Eastern Europe.

Praise

Andrzej Szczypiorski

›His narrative style is calm and leisurely, yet pacey; his writing is composed, but always with wit and vigour.‹ – Marcel Reich-Ranicki / Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung

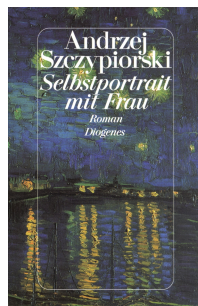

Andrzej Szczypiorski (1928 – 2000) was born in Warsaw, took part in the city's uprising against German occupation in 1944 and was subsequently sent to Sachsenhausen concentration camp. After the war, he worked as an author and publisher and became a member of the executive board of the Polish PEN Club and the Writer's Association. In December 1981, he was interned in a camp and remained a prisoner there until spring 1982. In 1989, he was chosen as a candidate by Solidarnosc and elected to the Polish Senate by the people. He received the Austrian ›State Award for European Literature‹ and the ›Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany‹.
