Secret Rulers

»Friedrich Dönhoff's narration is appealing, and the book irresistibly pulls you in.« –
Susanne Zobl / News, Vienna

Sebastian Fink has a brand new case and a brand new love, a DJ named Marissa.

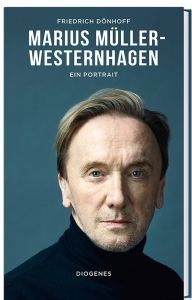

Sebastian is planning a trip to Italy with DJ Marissa, his new girlfriend. But sun, sea and sand will have to wait, because a series of murders is terrifying the people of Hamburg. The victims have nothing in common – except for their marked interest in refugees.

After numerous false leads, Sebastian Fink finally arrives at a place of horror that no one talks about although everybody knows it.

A highly contemporary novel about prostitution and traffic in women.

Friedrich Dönhoff, born in Hamburg in 1967, grew up in Kenya. After completing his studies in history and political science, he compiled biographies, including the bestseller The World is the Way You See It. Memories of Marion, Countess Dönhoff. Since 2008, he has been writing crime novels starring the young inspector Sebastian Fink.
