Die Wege des Louis Soutter

Roman · Diogenes

In 1923, on account of his exorbitant lifestyle, the musician and artist Louis Soutter is committed to a Swiss mental institution by his family. Only his famous cousin Le Corbusier stands by him. Soutter's pictures are unsettling and ignored by the art world of his time. Le Corbusier, both disconcerted and fascinated, becomes intertwined with this archaic art and the convoluted life paths that have led Soutter to this point.

»And the contrast - between order and chaos, between understanding and feeling - that emerges in their conversations is the all-important thread that runs throughout Hartmann's book.« – Charles Linsmayer / Schaffhauser Nachrichten, Schaffhausen

»With great empathy, Lukas Hartmann succeeds in showing how Louis Soutter created a wonderfully disturbing work out of his ›insuitability for life.« – Alexander Sury / Der Bund, Berne

»In an easily comprehensible, accessible way, he gives access to a piece of Swiss art history.« – Felix Münger / SRF 1, Zurich

Lukas Hartmann

»Lukas Hartmann immerses himself totally in his characters. He has a particular interest in figures who are in danger of being swallowed up by history. He is driven by a strong sense of justice, empathy and meticulousness.« – Beatrice Eichmann-Leutenegger / Neue Zürcher Zeitung

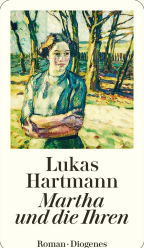

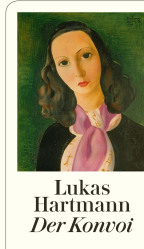

»Lukas Hartmann develops great poetic power, full of sensibility and eloquent silence.« – Neue Zürcher Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann has an incredible affinity to the world of children.« – Carol Rosa / Berner Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann's ability to see the world through a child's eyes is outstanding.« – Hits for Kids, Gustavsburg

»A virtuoso of the historical novel.« – Charles Linsmayer / NZZ am Sonntag, Zurich

»Lukas Hartmann knows how to write history in a way that puts the present in a different light.« – Augsburgur Allgemeine
