Monika Czernin & Melissa Müller
Picasso's Hairdresser

Published by Diogenes as Picassos Friseur
Original title: Picassos Friseur

When Picasso meets hairdresser Eugenio Arias in 1947, they develop a deep relationship.
It is principally their communist conviction that unites the two Spaniards in exile in the South of France, but they also share a great love of bullfighting and a mischievous sense of humour.
Picasso's Hairdresser not only depicts the intense friendship between these two extraordinary men but also offers a fresh look on the world-famous painter as a generous and loyal companion.
