My Djinn

Published by Diogenes as Mein Dschinn
Original title: Mein Dschinn

Eleven-year-old Lars cannot bear living in the children's home anymore, and he runs away. He wants to find his mother, even though no-one knows where she is. Her last letter, which Lars carries with him in his pocket, was sent from India. But India is far away. Fortunately a strange old man comes to Lars' aid: his name is Kol and he knows a thing or two about herbs, Indian tea and many other mysterious things, including Lars' family history... On the search for his mother, the boy winds up in Rome – where Roma children take him to their campsite and the sharp-as-a-tack girl Suni helps him some more – and in the end he really does make it to India, where Lars and his friends will need all their wits and courage in order to outsmart those who want to harm his mother.

Praise (cont'd)

»My Djinn« has everything that makes a good young adult novel stand out. It's gripping, atmospheric, and subtly touches upon realities such as drug-dealing and child abuse.« – Irene Widmer / Bündner Tagblatt, Chur

»A profound and wonderful adventure.« – Anne-Sophie Scholl / Berner Zeitung

»A great book for adolescents – featuring a fantastic hero but without those fantasy stereotypes.« – Sebastian Hammelehle / spiegel.de

Lukas Hartmann

»Lukas Hartmann immerses himself totally in his characters. He has a particular interest in figures who are in danger of being swallowed up by history. He is driven by a strong sense of justice, empathy and meticulousness.« – Beatrice Eichmann-Leutenegger / Neue Zürcher Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann develops great poetic power, full of sensibility and eloquent silence.« – Neue Zürcher Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann has an incredible affinity to the world of children.« – Carol Rosa / Berner Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann's ability to see the world through a child's eyes is outstanding.« – Hits for Kids, Gustavsburg

»A virtuoso of the historical novel.« – Charles Linsmayer / NZZ am Sonntag, Zurich

»Lukas Hartmann knows how to write history in a way that puts the present in a different light.« – Augsburgener Allgemeine
