Die Geschichte von
Sabina und Fritz

Roman · Diogenes

Sabina has come to Zurich from Russia to be treated by Dr. Carl Gustav Jung at the University Psychiatric Clinic – and becomes his lover.

Fritz, a carpenter's son, dreams of building a better society. He pushes Switzerland to the brink of revolution, and later in Russia he saves Lenin's life.

Sabina and Fritz are courageous, torn, full of contradictions; both ceaseless breakers of new ground. Their paths interweave and mirror one another – even as they slip away into the darkness of European history.

Praise

Into the Unknown

»They walked in step, on separate paths, until they met their terrible fate in 1942.« – Roman Bucheli / NZZ Online, Zurich

»Hartmann tells of departures into the unknown, of transformations of the world and the self.« – Alexander Kluy / Der Standard, Vienna

Lukas Hartmann

»Lukas Hartmann immerses himself totally in his characters. He has a particular interest in figures who are in danger of being swallowed up by history. He is driven by a strong sense of justice, empathy and meticulousness.« – Beatrice Eichmann-Leutenegger / Neue Zürcher Zeitung

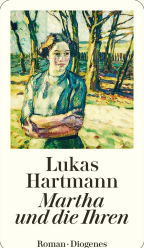

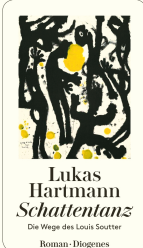

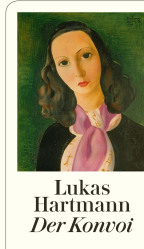

»Lukas Hartmann develops great poetic power, full of sensibility and eloquent silence.« – Neue Zürcher Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann has an incredible affinity to the world of children.« – Carol Rosa / Berner Zeitung

»Lukas Hartmann's ability to see the world through a child's eyes is outstanding.« – Hits for Kids, Gustavsburg

»A virtuoso of the historical novel.« – Charles Linsmayer / NZZ am Sonntag, Zurich

»Lukas Hartmann knows how to write history in a way that puts the present in a different light.« – Augsburg Allgemeine
