Ein Zürich-Krimi

Roman · Diogenes

The new Zurich-based crime series from Diogenes, presenting a wonderfully warmhearted investigator who is also a keen gardener and cook: Rosa Zambrano, an officer with the water police. Lake Zurich is Rosa's beat. When a body is recovered from its blue depths, she realises the man looks eerily familiar. Shortly after Officer Rosa Zambrano has her eggs frozen at a fertility treatment centre on Lake Zurich, her doctor is found dead. Who might have wanted to get Dr Jansen – also a successful biotech entrepreneur – out of the way? The initial clues lead Rosa to a villa on the Goldcoast on Lake Zurich, to genetic research labs, deep into an alternative subculture and into the murky world of the sex trade – and to four women, each of whom in their own way reject the hand they have been dealt by biology or fate.

Praise

Deep Dark Blue

›Seraina Kobler has written a compelling thriller which, fortunately, isn't too gory.« – Gaby van Whaden / WDR2, Cologne

›A gripping crime novel that still makes a holiday in Zurich sound like fun.« – Martin Meyer / Westdeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, Essen

›In her crime novel, Seraina Kobler has found a calm and unhurried language.« – Kristian Teetz / Sonntag, Hanover

›Seraina Kobler knows how to build tension.« – Bernd Noack / Neue Zürcher Zeitung, Zurich

Seraina Kobler

›Seraina Kobler knows how to build tension.« – Bernd Noack / Neue Zürcher Zeitung, Zurich

Seraina Kobler, born in Locarno in 1982, studied linguistic and cultural studies before working as a journalist for publications including the Neue Zürcher Zeitung. Eventually setting up as a freelance author, in 2020 she published her debut novel, Regenschatten. Her first Zurich-based crime novel featuring officer Rosa Zambrano, Deep Dark Blue, spent months on the Swiss bestseller lists. Seraina Kobler lives with her family in Zurich.
