Ein Fall für Sebastian Fink

Roman · Diogenes

Conflict is rife between Ecopolis activists and the Köhn shipping company. One is concerned about the environment, the other about their competitive power. When the corpse of a ship owner is found at the fish market, Inspector Sebastian Fink starts investigating. The case leads him to a bitter manager in a modern glass palace high above the docks, a sport-obsessed widow in the country and a student couple in St. Pauli. Sebastian already was busy with the case – then his grandmother turns up on his doorstep one morning and confronts him with a long-hidden family secret.

Friedrich Dönhoff, born in Hamburg in 1967, grew up in Kenya. After completing his studies in history and political science, he compiled biographies, including the bestseller The World is the Way You See It. Memories of Marion, Countess Dönhoff. Since 2008, he has been writing crime novels starring the young inspector Sebastian Fink.
