Diogenes

Maria Elisabeth Straub The Gift

Published by Diogenes as Das Geschenk Original title: Das Geschenk

Roman · Diogenes

One night, two thousand years ago, in a mountain village known as Nazareth. A carpenter's wife sits by the deathbed of her aged husband, and watches as her life drifts through her mind's eye, her turbulent and moving destiny, so closely intertwined with the mysterious destiny of her firstborn son. A son who, with the dawn, will no longer be under her protection.

This new perspective on an exceptional moment in the history of mankind, retold with great sincerity, full at once of humour, love and wisdom, restores a sense of the original humanity of the members of the holy family.

Book factsheet

General Fiction 336 pages 11.6 × 18.4 cm September 2006

World rights are handled by Diogenes

Award

2002 >Frauen-Krimi-Preis der Stadt
Wiesbaden für Kleine Schwester

Maria Elisabeth Straub was born in 1943 in Schleswig-Holstein. She studied art history and German philology and has worked as a freelance author since 1970. Together with her co-author Martina Borger, she has published three novels so far. Maria Elisabeth Straub lives in Germany's far north.

Summer with Emma 416 pages 2009

384 pages 2004

In the Ring ${\begin{tabular}{l} {\begin{tabular}{l} {\be$

Little Sister 224 pages 2002

Award winner

Cats' Tongues 368 pages 2001

Movie Adaptation