Diogenes

Book factsheet

Katharina Höftmann
Ocean

Published by Diogenes as Ozean
Original title: Ozean

Friedchen and Paula meet in 1932, and it's friendship at first sight. Two women who are hungry for life, filled with hopes and dreams. Their friendship — as they pledge to one another during their long nights of dancing in Berlin — will last forever. Friedchen just happens to fall in love with Paula's charming cousin Max. But then Hitler comes to power — and Paula and Max are Jewish. Katharina Höftmann takes us on a journey through a century, across the ocean and beyond all the disruptions that still resonate today.

Contemporary Literature, Novel
336 pages
11.6 × 18.4 × 2.5 cm
November 2026

World rights are handled by Diogenes

Praise

Katharina Höftmann

»The special thing about Katharina Höftmann's books is their intense proximity to the very big emotions, which she always captures at just the right moment.« – Judith Poznan / (Author)

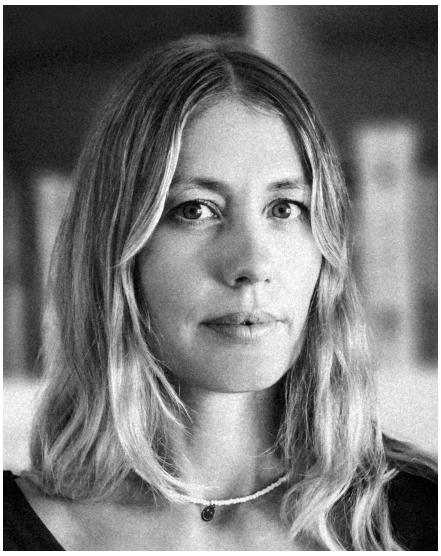

Photo: © Dana Lavie

Katharina Höftmann was born in 1984 in Rostock. She studied Psychology and German-Jewish history in Berlin, is a freelance journalist, the author of numerous novels and non-fiction titles, and writes the blog Good Morning, Tel Aviv. She lives with her family in Tel Aviv.