Praise

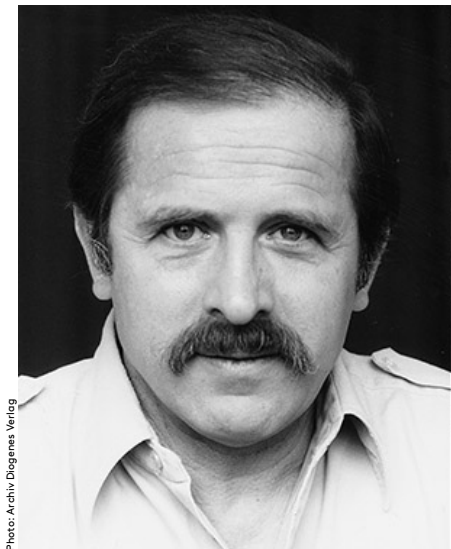

Reiner Zimnik

»Zimnik is a poet, a headstrong, meditative poet.« – Neue Zürcher Zeitung

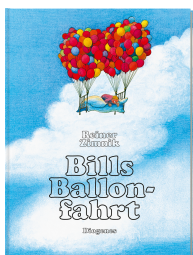

»An illustrator who tells tales, and a teller of tales who draws.« – Basler Zeitung

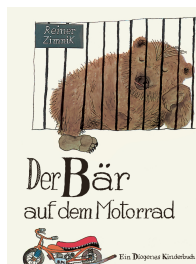

Reiner Zimnik's melancholy, tender, dreamy fairy tales for adults and children. A gallery full of kind, truculent, naive, tragicomic loners and misfits in the shape of humans and animals, that oppose this world with a more ideal and innocent one.

Reiner Zimnik (1930 - 2021) was born in Bytom, grew up in Lower Bavaria, and drew from the age of four. After an apprenticeship as a cabinet-maker and studying at the Academy of Fine Arts in Munich he continued to live in the city as a poet, illustrator and painter. Reiner Zimnik was awarded a number of prizes (including the ›Eichendorff Prize‹, ›Munich Art Prize for Graphic Design‹ and a scholarship at the Villa-Massimo).
