F.K. Waechter (Ill.)
Hell's Hound

Published by Diogenes as Der Höllenhund
Original title: Der Höllenhund

This unique picture story from the late great artist F.K. Waechter tells a timeless story in intense, powerful strokes.
F.K. Waechter was one of the most astounding and versatile artists of our times. His award-winning books are beautiful, his cartoons humorous and to the point. Yet with this impressive posthumous find, Waechter once again breaks down all genre boundaries and will thrill readers with his dark and memorable fable of a hellish hound.
»I write and draw for all those who were once five years old, who still remember it and would like to live to ninety-nine.«
F.K. Waechter

Friedrich Karl Waechter (1937 - 2005) was born in Danzig (now Poland). Since 1962 he lived in Frankfurt am Main, working first as a graphic artist and later as a free-lancer for various newspapers and magazines, including a number of satirical publications. In 1966 he published his first volume of drawings and cartoons. His famous Anti-Shockheaded Peter was published in 1970. In addition to drawing, Waechter worked for the stage and for films. In 1999 he received the ›German Youth Literature Prize‹ for The Red Wolf.
