Benedict Wells Spinner

Roman • Diogenes

Jesper Lier, 20, only knows one thing – he has to change his life, radically. He goes through a turbulent week and on a wild odyssey around the new Berlin. A tragicomic novel about the fear of really making the right decisions.

»I've always had a special relationship with Spinner. Because I was nineteen when I wrote it and so much of my genuine rage, insecurity and youthful emotions went into the book. But there were also a lot of things that bothered me about it. Stylistic issues, but also content. So it was a longcherished wish of mine to improve a few things about the story. I've rarely had as much fun as a writer as I did reworking this book.«

Praise (cont'd)

»Benedict Wells is probably the biggest talent our country has seen in the past few years.« – Kester Schlenz / Stern, Hamburg

»If you want to convince a young person that reading is fun, you'd best offer him a book by Benedict Wells.« – NRC Handelsblad, Amsterdam

Benedict Wells, born in Munich in 1984, moved to Berlin after completing school and focused on his writing, earning a living with various jobs. His fourth novel, The End of Loneliness, spent more than a year and a half on the Spiegel Bestseller list, was awarded the 2016 ›European Union Prize for Literature‹, among other awards, and has been published in 39 languages. His latest novel Hard Land was awarded the independent young adult jury's ›German Youth Literature Award‹ in 2022. After several years in Barcelona, Benedict Wells now lives in Zurich.
