Original title: To kinima tis aftoktonias

Athens during the pandemic. The shops are shut and many people have been pushed to the brink, so it's hardly surprising that even the elderly are taking their own lives. Yet when Costas Haritos hears that a ninety-year-old has written ›Long live the Suicide Movement!‹ in his note, his ears prick up. Is there more to his actions than just despair? Haritos investigates – and gets to know the city of Athens and its inhabitants' spirit of resistance in a whole new light.
