With You, the World Keeps Turning

»A deeply moving homage to the healing power of love.« – Petra Schulte / Emotion, Hamburg

London, 1951. Nanette Blitz and John König meet at a party. She is the only survivor in her family, and deeply traumatised. He is also an orphan, and already has a ticket for the crossing to Brazil. Their encounter is a moment of happiness and intimacy – something neither of them expected to feel again. They write to one another for almost two years before Nanette decides to follow John to São Paulo. This is a book about rediscovered hope and joy for life, and an extraordinary love.

Melissa Müller, born in Vienna, is an author, scriptwriter and journalist. Her book Anne Frank: The Biography has been translated into more than 25 languages, and the film adaptation has garnered multiple Emmys. Until the Final Hour: Hitler's Last Secretary, co-written with Traudl Junge, was on the Spiegel bestseller list for over a year, and led to the Oscar-nominated film Downfall. She published Picasso's Hairdresser: The Story of a Friendship, a collaboration with Monika Czernin, with Diogenes in 2023.
