Praise

Viktorija Tokarjewa

»Viktorija Tokarjewa writes like the Trans-Siberian Railway on ecstasy – full steam ahead to total catastrophe!« – Doris Dörrie

»As focused as Chekhov. Great art painted with a light hand, superb.« – Harald Ries / Westfalenpost, Hagen

»Viktorija Tokarjewa's short stories are X-rays of the soul.« – Literaturnaja Gaseta, Moscow

›Artist of Life‹ is the story of Tamara whose husband, a famous sculptor, starts drinking again after ten years of abstinence. During a business trip to the Ukraine Tamara meets a young man called Jura who is totally different from her husband. Should she start a new life with him?

›Centre of Memory‹ tells the story of Warwara Timofejewa. One day, the cups in the cupboard jump out at her. Since even the militiaman whom she has summoned is unable to explain why there should be an earthquake in Warwara's apartment of all places, Warwara starts thinking back over the past and comes to the conclusion that it must be a divine punishment for a youthful sin...

›Balance‹ tells the story of a young woman who decides to commit suicide. She wraps herself up in a wet sheet and goes out on to the balcony in the icy cold. But something she observes on her neighbour's balcony revives in her interest in life.

›A Greek went out...‹ is the beginning of a nursery rhyme which little Pashka cannot forget. Patiently, a young man explains the rhyme to him. The young man also plays the role of ›uncle‹ to his own son from whom he lives apart, coming and going as he pleases and enjoying his freedom. After living with his girlfriend Mika for some years he feels that ties must be avoided at all costs. This, however, is not good enough for Mika, and when the musician flies off on holiday to southern climes alone, Mika takes steps of which he would not believed her to be capable.
