

Astrid Rosenfeld
Twelve Times July

Published by Diogenes as Zwölf Mal Juli
Original title: Zwölf Mal Juli

Jacob and July, it once sounded like a promise. But now years have already gone by since he broke that promise and left July out of the blue. Then Jacob sends an email announcing his return. He is coming in 12 days time, on flight 3930. In these 12 days, the past and the future push their way into July's present, and in these 12 encounters, Astrid Rosenfeld depicts a headstrong young woman who has to find out how to keep on living after a great love and great dreams break down – and how to keep on dreaming.

Astrid Rosenfeld was born in Cologne in 1977. After her high-school graduation, Rosenfeld went to California for two years, and worked at a small theatre. After that she began to train as an actress in Berlin, before quitting the course one and a half years later. Since then she has held a variety of jobs in the film industry, as a casting director amongst others. Her debut, ›Adam's Legacy‹, reached the longlist of the ›German Book Prize‹ 2011. Astrid Rosenfeld lives in Berlin and Marfa, Texas.
